Internships

Internships provide students, recent graduates and career changers with valuable work experience and contacts in a variety of professions. In a competitive job market, internships provide an important edge for job seekers. Although many internships are unpaid, students may be eligible for academic credit.

How to find out about internships:

- Talk to a career or guidance counselor
- Talk to professors or teachers
- Network with fellow students, friends, family members and acquaintances
- Check listings in internship directories in the Education & Job Information Center
- Search the yellow pages or business directories in the library
- Check employer websites
- Contact employers by phone

Find other resource guides compiled by the Education & Job Information Center at www.brooklynpubliclibrary.org/ejic.
